

This is your guide for reading through the bible over the upcoming year. This plan will have two daily readings, one covering the first half of the Old Testament, and another covering the whole of the New Testament and Psalms. This is part of a larger reading plan that covers the second half of the Old Testament and repeats the New Testament and Psalms in the second year.

Practical tips on following a reading plan

How sweet are your words to my mouth, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

Psalm 119:103

The benefits of daily bible reading.

Psalm 1:1-3. 'Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers, but whose delight is in the law of the Lord, and who meditates on his law day and night. That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season and whose leaf does not wither- whatever they do prospers.'

Psalm 1 is a gateway to the rest of the psalms, showing us our need to not only read the psalms but meditate on them day and night. Four benefits of daily bible reading can be seen:

1. The tree never ceases needing water to survive. Similarly, the psalm calls us to be 'meditating on his law day and night'. Life is full of struggles, pains, disappointments, and failures, without the joy we find in God's word, our faith won't survive.
2. Like water to a tree, so is the word of God to a Christian. Trees need water to grow, without a steady and abundant source of water they won't grow to their full potential. Likewise, without the water of truth from God's word we will only be spiritual saplings rather than the towering oaks we're called to be.
3. The tree is planted next to a flowing stream and not a stagnant, muddy puddle. We too need a fresh flow of the water of truth to grow us, not selective portions of the bible. We get this through reading through all the bible not just our favourite sections.
4. Only trees with access to water can bear fruit. To be bearing fruit in our Christian lives we must be in God's word. As God uses his word to empower, rebuke, train and grow us, we'll be bearing fruit for him as a result.

Top Tips for Daily Bible Reading

Reading your bible everyday can be hard, especially when starting out. Here are some tips that may be helpful!

- Don't forget the reason for reading the bible. As Christians, we read the bible in response to God's love for us, not as something to earn it. Therefore, there's always reason to keep going. Fallen several days behind? Set aside some time (like a lazy Sunday afternoon) and catch-up or skip to the current day.
- Read with others. Reading the same plan as a friend is a great way to be encouraged, and to encourage them, through the difficult parts and share passages that have been especially impactful.
- Set a consistent time. Most people find that early in the morning is the best time to set aside time to read God's word. Whatever time is best for you, setting a consistent time to read God's word will be helpful in persevering with a reading plan.
- Read a devotional alongside it. 'For the Love of God' (Volume 1) by D.A Carson is a reading companion for this plan.
- Pray. Reading the bible daily is hard. It's amazing that we can always turn to God in prayer for his help, praying for; understanding of difficult passages, persevering during difficult times of life, keeping us from becoming legalistic and proud over our reading, and showing us more of his glorious Son, his power and love, and how that changes our lives.
